Hengkons, June 23rd, 1878.

An interesting and somewhat curious-illustration of the easy manner in which criominals of the very worst grade can obtain the protection of the well-to-do Chinese in the Colony, and the extent to which sympathy is extended to them in their contempt for British law and authority, occurred a few edgys ago at the Police Court. A very old ; resident in Victoria Gaol, named CHUN-A-LOI, was apprehended proping about during the still hours or the night, and was brought betore Mr. MITCHELL, charged with being a ACCIDENT TO THE P. AND O. MAIL suspicious character, dangerous to the peace and good order of the Colony. He had been in gaol on several different occasions. On one he was sentenced to eighteen months' hard labour, and to be flogged, for robbery verra hard labour. The Magistrate fined him $50, or three months' imprisonment, and ordered him to find security for six months hand it was shortly after observed that they had more, in two sureties of $100 each. On the fortunately succeeded in beaching her near j next Court day, two excellent sureties pre- Kowloon Docks. sented themselves—one, a gentleman named and ex-pupil of the Rev. the rowdies invariably get the upper hand of the wealthy and responsible classes to a very great degree, and contrive to keep both them and the mandarins in awe. One means by which this is done, is by the powerful working of secret organisations, which are commonly formed among them, and whose influence is much-dreaded by a Chinese, for which indeed there seems good reason, to judge by the report of the investigations into the Secret Societies in Penang. At all events, it is perfectly clear from the circumstances above detailed, that it is absurd to place any faith in what are so often ostentationally held forward as the great safeguard of Hongkong against all dangers and difficulties-the respectable' Chinese. It is considered that we can safely look to this class for maintaining order and preventing any serious outbreak on the part of the criminal and rowdy population. Let those who believe this, say whether the action of the Rev. Dr. LEGGE'S expupil, and the druggist in Battery Road, looks more like opposing the notorious criminal, CHUN-A-LOI; or like aiding him. As will be seen by our shipping reports, another P. & O. steamer nearly came to grief herself, and had a close shave of sending an English brig and her crew to the bottom, off Kowloon Point, at 8 p.m. on Saturday. The steam tug Fame had in tow the P. & O. steamer Sunda, taking her to Kowloon, for transhipoing the cargo from the Bokhara into her, when suddenly the Firms sheared off, seeing a light ahead, and the Sunda astern not baving time to after her belm, ran right into the British brig Rebecca Jane, brought up of Kowloon Point, and nearly out her down to the water's edge, just before the fore rigging, carrying away stanchions, rail, bulwark, covering board, rigging, and going through several planks to the water's edge. The Sunda then brought up, and got under weigh yesterday morning, and went in to the Kowloon dock bay. The fact is, that produce of popper in Acheen has been for some time enormonsly decreasing, whilst, internal discord, violence, and robbery have been materially on the increase, consequent perhaps on the youth of the Sultan and the bitterness like clutches. If such lawless plundering and destruction of vessels stranded, or in want of water or n cessaries, is to be chased as " netty theft." as some Penang special pleaders have wholesale robbery and shore piracy, &c., attended by murder in case of resistance or even remonstrance?

THE BLOCKADE OF ACHEEN

(Straits Times.) We have been favoured with a copy in the Dutch language of the Proclamation of a Blockade of Acheen by the Dutch Authorities. We are enabled to give, below, a translation of this Proclamation. We should have imagined that a document of so much importance to the trade of these Settlements would have warranted the issue of an Extra- Government Gazette, in order to warn merchants and traders, but the discreditable supineness and even complicity which have characterised the local and imperial British Government with regard to this wanton and iniquitous attack of the Dutch upon Achineso independence, would seem to be destined to be carried out in the smallest minuties. PROCLAMATION.

The Governor General of Netherlands India, Commander in Chief of his Majesty the King of the Netherlands' Military and Naval forces castward of the Cape of Good Hope. Informs each and every person whom it may concern, that on account of the war which exists between the Netherlands Indian Government and the Kingdom of Acheen-the harbours, lauding places, coasts, rivers, bays, and creeks of the Kingdom are declared to be in a state of blockade, with all the consequences attached to it, and that the Commander of the Naval Force stationed in the Achinese waters is charged with the execution of this measure.

TEA ADULTERATION.

On the 6th May, at a meeting of the City Commission of Sewers at Guildhall, Dr. Lethany, the Medical Officer of Health for the City, reported that his attention had been of London of 1.000 boxes of adulterated green tou. He at once proceeded to the sale rooms in Mincing-lane, where the tea was being add by auction, but failing to get authentic samples; he went to the bonded warehouses in Upper Thumes street, and obtained thom there. On returning to the rooms he found that the whole of the tea had been sold, but one of the inspectors had fortunately obtained the names of most of the purchasers. The tea was sold in lots of 250 boxes each, and was described as "Extra Fine New Season's Moyane Gurpowder Green Tea, ex Sarpedon, steamship, from Cinton. He had carefully examined the samples, and found that they contained from 40 to 43 per cent of ironfilings and 19 per cent. of silica in the form of fine sand, which had been eleverly mixed with and added to the leaves before carling, with a view to increase their weight and bulk. After the leaves were curled they had been thickly covered with green pigment, and when infused in boiling water they produced a very turbid solution, off usive to the smell and nanseous to the taste. He recommended the Sanitary Committee to take further proceedings in the mutter. He also stated that on the 25th April he was privately informed that a large quantity of unsound tes was being offered for sale in the city by a firm of brokers, and on enquiry he found that it was the salvage of about 1,150,000 lbs. of tea which formed part of the cargo of the Lalla Rookh, the vessel which was wrecked on the 2nd of March. The wet tea was brought to London a short time ago, and, having been redried and otherwise manipulated to give it a decent appearance, had been repacked in old tea chests bought for the purpose, and then stored in a bonded warehouse. It consisted of 934 half-chests and 36 chests of congou, 24 halfchests of green tea, and 2d bags of teadnet. All the samples were composed of exhausted and putrid leaves, and were utterly unfit for human consumption. The solicitor (Mr. Baylis) had warned both the sampling brokers and the owners of their liabilities "nuder" the Adultoration Act in case they disposed of the tes.

the warehouses for the purpose of examination and analysis, and they referred to the serious delay which arose in obtaining the condemnation of the goods. They suggested that power should be given to the medical officer of health or nuisance inspector of a district to enter bonded warehouses to inspect articles of food and drink stored there, and if necessary to take samples, and in the event of their being found to be unsound and adulterated, to obtain from the Justices an order either for the immediate seizing and condemnation of the goods, or their stoppage for a sufficient time to enable an examination to be made. With a view to such powers being granted, they recommended Policies at current rates, payable either hero that their report should be sent to Har Maesty's Government and to the Board of Customs. ENGLISH AND CHINESE DICTIONARY WITH THE PUNTI AND MANDARIN PRONUNCIATION. An Anglo-Chinese Dictionary, published at the Daily Press Office, Hongkong.

IMPERIAL QUARTO.

MOR comprehensiveness and practical service this Work stands unrivalled. All the new words which the Chinese have of late years been ! compelled to coin to express the numerous objects in machinery, photography, telegraphy, and in ecience generally, which the rapid advance of foreign relations has imposed upon them, are here given in extenso. Each and every word is cises for students of a most instructive nature. Both the Court and Punti pronunciations are given, the accents being carefully marked on the best principle hitherto attained. The typography displays the success of an attempt to make the Chinese and English type correspond in the size of body, thereby effecting a vast economy of space, achieving a clearness not previously attained, and dispensing with those vast margins and vacant spaces which have heretofore characterized Chinese publications... To illustrate the vast scope of the work, the following facts are submitted for consideration. Chalmers' Vocabularly contains about 16,000 Chinese characters, and Medburst's English and Chinese Dictionary about 100,000, whilst this work contains more than 50,000 English words, and upwards of 600,000 Chinese charac- the following articles may be obtained, of the ters.
